

1. State the common barriers to effective communication.
2. In what ways is communication important for effective managerial performance? As a manager, how would you ensure that you are an effective communicator ?
3. What is communication ? What are the common barriers to effective communication in an organisation ?
4. Discuss the importance of communication in an organisation. What guidelines will you suggest to make communication effective ?