

(ii) You have been working with an automobile manufacturing company. The management of the company is concerned for declining sale of company's cars. The managing director has written you to investigate the reasons and submit a report in this regard. Draft the report with findings and recommendations.