

DIALOGUE WRITING

Match the following dialogues:

Why are you not making samosas for breakfast?	I am facing a few problems due to the lockdown but overall it is going on well.
Let us plan to meet up today evening.	It is not a healthy thing to eat in the morning.
Where are you going during the summer vacation?	I have some friends coming over today so I can't meet you today
How is your preparation for the forthcoming examination going on amidst the lockdown?	He has gone to the market to buy some vegetables.
Where is father?	I plan on going to my ancestral village to meet my grandparents.

Match the following dialogues:

Hello, how are you feeling today?	I had some Pizza lying in the fridge, I warmed it in the oven and had that for dinner.
Did you eat outside food or stale food yesterday night?	I understand that now. Will keep it in mind in future.
You should have fresh homemade food during the rainy season.	My stomach is hurting.
You should consult a doctor for the same.	Fine I will do that.
But do go if the pain persists.	I think I will wait it out for now and see if I am feeling better by tomorrow.

Match the following dialogues:

Where had you gone?	No, my father will be visiting me next week.
Are you planning to go somewhere?	Oh, sure he will love that. He is quite fond of you.
Than why were you booking tickets?	I had gone to the travel agent to book air tickets.
What all are you planning to show him when he is in town?	I am not going anywhere.
Oh, than do bring him over to our house for dinner on a day convenient to him.	He has seen the city earlier and doesn't want to go out.

You can log to the link given below for further practice.

<https://edumantra.net/learn-english/dialogue-completion-exercises-with-answers-exercise-7-8/>