

Name of the 'little boy'. Bhimrao
Date of birth of the 'little boy'. 14 April 1891
Place of birth of the 'little boy'. Mhow Central India
Names of his parents. Ramji Sakpal and Bhimabai
His father's profession. Indian Army
Number of siblings (brothers and sisters) fourteen

B. Match the sub-headings given below with the paragraphs of the passage above. The paragraphs have been numbered for your convenience. (4)

- Facing social discrimination;
- How Bhimrao would respond to the Caste System;
- Looking forward to school;
- Information about Bhimrao's family and community

C. Answer the following questions using your own words.

- Write down any two experiences that little Bhimrao had on his first day at school (2)
- What opportunities did the Indian army give to the Mahars? (2)
- What did Bhimrao demand of society? (1)

3. A. Choose the correct words from the brackets and rewrite the sentences given below. (1x5)

- I (~~accept~~/except) your offer.
- Although there were ten people in the room, it was very (~~quiet~~/quite).
- Her car ran out of (~~patrol~~/petrol).
- Can I (~~pour~~/pore) you some coffee?
- (~~Wait~~/weight) for me till I reach.

B. Choose the correct synonym (a word having a similar meaning) for the underlined words below. (5) One sentence has been done as an example.

The boys were surprised when they saw the beautiful flowers the delivery girl brought.

A) fast B) pretty C) orange D) sticky

i. I recorded my findings in a journal.

A) used B) ~~locked~~ C) taped D) ~~wrote~~

ii. The dog was energetic and played all day long.

A) lazy B) ~~lively~~ C) unruly D) ~~cute~~

iii. Her family went to see a movie while Rani remained at home.

A) ate B) left C) ~~stayed~~ D) ~~departed~~