

Grammar Exercises

A. Choose the correct alternative of the italicized word from the options given:

1. Ramesh is obese, hence he should not eat fried food.

Dense, fat

2. I have a large collection of books.

Huge, dense

3. Pay attention to the announcement.

Listen, hear

4. You can hear the chirping of the birds in the forest.

Trees, Woods

B. Fill in the blanks with suitable articles where needed.

I live in Delhi and go to-----school by bus. ----- bus is driven by-----old man. ----- man lives near -----school. He has been driving-----school bus for the past twenty years. -----driver is --- -----honest man. Everyone respects him and listen to him. He will retire in -----year. We will miss him.

C. Fill in the blanks with suitable articles where needed.

We go for holidays to ----- new state every year. This year we were planning to go to explore our own city. We had planned to visit ----- Doll museum and -----Rail museum. Delhi is -----historical city with -----rich culture and we were planning to get acquainted with it.

D. Fill in the blanks with suitable articles where needed.

Our teacher speaks-----Chinese. She also likes to play----- football. She has -----cat and-----dog. She takes them out for----- walk in -----evening as she is busy in-----morning with her work. She teaches us----- maths.

E. Fill in the blanks with suitable prepositions.

Rohan a cousin -----mine will be meeting me-----8 o'clock ----- Tuesday. He is away-----a business trip and will be back----- town -----Monday morning. He fell-----a horse last month, but continued working -----home.

F. Fill in the blanks with suitable prepositions.

Pour the juice-----the glass and put the rest of it-----the fridge.

Put the glass-----the table. Don't spill the juice or mother will shout

-----you. She is very fond-----juice and doesn't like it going waste. She will-----herself with anger.