PRESS RELEASE of NBT

11th August 2017 marked the conclusion to the 7 day of Book Publishing Course organized exclusively for women by National Book Trust (India) in collaboration with Aditi Mahavidyalaya (University of Delhi), Bawana. The course is a part of a unique drive by NBT to commemorate 60 years of its completion. The programme was inaugurated by Dr. Baldev Bhai Sharma, the Chairman of NBT. The felicitation ceremony for 44 participants of this one-week programme was marked by inspirational speeches by Ms. Kiran Chopra (Writer Education Humanist and Social Worker & Director Punjab Kesri). Dr. Baldev Bhai Sharma, Dr. Mamta Sharma (Principal Aditi Mahavidyalaya), Mrs. Neerja Nagpal (Course Coordinator) & Mr. Narender Kumar (Training Officer, NBT India). Ms. Kiran Chopra thanked the NBT that with such courses women were now entering this less familiar territory of publishing too. Dr. Baldev Bhai Sharma stressed that the nation's growth lay in women's empowerment and this course was instrumental in providing employment to women.

This seven days' course included several sessions by famous personalities and experts from the world of publication and journalism and familiarised students with technical, theoretical and practical aspects of book publishing. Certificates were distributed to all the participants of the course.
