FROM THE PRINCIPAL'S DESK:

I congratulate the Placement Cell of our college for coming up with their first issue of newsletter this academic year. Being a front runner in imparting education to the girl students many of whom are first generation learners, Placement Cell has played a pivotal role in preparing our students to meet professional challenges they will have to face in their future endeavors. The conjoint efforts of Cell with C.P.C., University of Delhi has opened a vast ocean of opportunities by organizing placement and internship interviews.

These equip our students with confidence in their abilities and encourage them to develop to their full potential. In last few years many of our students have bagged secure jobs in reputed organizations like Tata Power Ltd. and undertake internships, which have provided them exposure to real time work environment. With the belief in holistic development of girls, we aim to empower them with financial independence, which has become a necessity in current times of grave economic uncertainties. I feel elated to see the Cell working hard towards organizing numerous workshops, mock interviews and special lectures for development of professional and soft skills in students, which they are able to benefit from. With the vision of maximum professional development of students, I wish the Placement Cell to keep up with their good work in generating employment opportunities for the students while still in college, so that their dreams of a hopeful tomorrow shine bright and high in their eyes.
