To meet the objectives of NEP for knowledge creation, students of Political science were taken to SWEDA, branch of All India Women's Association At 6, Bhagwan Das Road, New Delhi on 11th March 2022.

Students were oriented about employability issues among unorganised sectors, a road map for recognition of domestic work rights and pension rights of house wives.

The students actively participated and interacted with women from unorganised sectors nominated for recognition. They were overwhelmed by interacting with such prestigious institution and its activities covering life skills promoting employability. This tram was led by NEP Task Force Convenor Principal and Nodal Officer.
