दिल्ली विश्वविद्यालय UNIVERSITY OF DELHI

General Guidelines for the Implementation of NEP 2020 in the Undergraduate Programmes for the session 2022-23

Colleges and Departments of the University running Undergraduate Programmes shall make all efforts to implement the National Education Policy 2020 in true spirit, which includes providing flexibility to the students, multidisciplinary approach of study, providing hands on learning and skills, holistic education through Ability Enhancement Courses, Value Addition Courses and other exposures as envisaged in the UGCF 2022.

With this view, the following guideline is being issued:

1. Every college/department should offer SEC, AEC and VAC pools. It is desirable that at least 3 courses of SEC and VAC should be made available to the students by each college.
2. All 22 Indian Languages of AEC should be offered to the students by the Colleges. University shall facilitate in case if a Cluster does not have teacher/faculty to teach a particular language.
3. The list of such courses may be enlarged by taking advantage of the Knowledge Networks/Cluster Colleges which shall ensure more options to the students.
4. The time-table of these courses may be synchronized within the Cluster by the working groups, at the earliest.
5. The Generic Elective Courses of a discipline are offered to the students who are not studying the discipline as one of the core courses (DSCs). The students cannot opt for GEs of the parent department(s) as it is meant to provide multidisciplinary perspectives.
6. All AEC courses of Semester I offered by the College will be made available in Semester 2 also so that students can study Environmental Science - Course 1 and Indian Language course 1 in flip mode in the first year. Similar arrangement shall be followed in the second semester also with respect to the Environmental Science course 2 and Indian Language course 2 (Indian Language course 1 and 2 shall be of the same language).
7. The GEs of the first four semesters shall be a pool of Indian Languages and English for all B.A. Programmes and B.Com. programmes and from Semester V onwards, the common pool of GEs shall be opened to such students.
8. The GE common pool (which includes languages also) shall be open to all the students of B.Sc. (H), B.Sc. (P), B.A. (H), and B.Com. (H) from semester 1 to semester 8. One credit of lecture or tutorial shall be one hour per week for 15 weeks and one credit of practical/lab activity/practicum shall be for two hours per week for 15 weeks (applicable for all DSCs, DSEs, GEs, AECs, SECs, VACs as per the credit distribution of each course).
