

1.3.1 Institution integrates cross cutting issues relevant to Gender, Environment and Sustainability, Human Values and Professional Ethics into the Curriculum.

Response: The institute vision explicitly mentions human values, social commitment and ethics : intellectual competence, moral uprightness, social commitment, spiritual orientation service to society. These elements are inculcated in the value system of the institute community, learners on one hand and staff and faculty on the other side. Some of the human values that are integrated into the curriculum are: justice, dignity of life, peace, harmony, acceptance and respect for diversity in religion, ethnicity, culture and gender, discipline and hard work, honesty and integrity of life, commitment to society, especially the less privileged, etc..

Thus, the curriculum including the pedagogy is designed integrating these cross cutting issues pertaining to gender, environment and sustainability; and human values and professional ethics in varying degree in all the departments

The cross -cutting issues like Gender, Environmental sustainability, Human Values and Professional Ethics etc., find an ample space when it comes to applying them positively into the curriculum. We believe in maintaining healthy environment for all of our students. The curriculum is designed by the university itself does include many of these aspects such as the subjects namely Professional Ethics and Moral Values. College celebrates days of National and International importance as Republic day, Women's day, Independence Day, Teacher's day, Human Right Day, International Yoga Day etc. These celebrations nurture the moral, ethical and social values in the students.

Students are introduced to major ethical theories and concepts which will inform an understanding of key concepts and issues in accounting and financial planning, and in society more broadly. Drawing on examples from business and commerce importantly, faculties ask students to apply theoretical principles to social issues such as income inequalities, commercial probity, corporate social responsibility, sustainable business practices, and contemporary human resources management practices. CBCS scheme entitled paper like Women and Empowerment deals in detail about feminist theories and includes works by eminent woman writers. The paper offers an insight in the changing role of women in Society and encapsulates the journey of Women Empowerment across decades. Gender discrimination is also an area that is explored in depth. The institution is committed and has actively organized various events inside and outside the college premises to create awareness of environment and sustainability among the students and the citizens of India for healthy environment. Workshops have been organized to sensitize students about importance of food label for students and to explore on healthy lifestyle and food choices to maintain environment sustainability. Talk on laws for protection of children's interest, organizes breastfeeding week by creating poster and slogan to generate awareness among students. The Social Work Program of college is comprised of classroom teaching and fieldwork practicum in real life settings. The classroom teaching is directed towards familiarizing the students with principles and skills required for social work intervention and developing students' personality through inculcation of democratic and humanitarian attributes and values.

Ethics, as a branch of philosophy, can be described as a systematic reflection on the morality of human judgment, character and action. Professional ethics, a contemporary topic of conversation among business professionals, is discussed using ethical foundation in which to frame study of the various business disciplines for college business students as the focal point. It encompasses a general introduction to ethics and considers analysing the ethical implications of complex situations by applying ethical principles for the modern world of global capitalism. Under above mentioned courses, Students are introduced to major ethical theories and concepts which will inform an understanding of key concepts and issues in accounting and financial planning, and in society more broadly. The minor in Business Law and Professional Ethics involves studies in law and ethics that complement studies of a suite of business disciplines, including the Accounting field. The department of commerce reinforces the University Core Curriculum units by reinforcing the central theme of systematic reflection on the morality of human judgment, character and action. Drawing on examples from business and commerce importantly, faculties ask students to apply theoretical principles to social issues such as income inequalities, commercial probity, corporate social responsibility, sustainable business practices, and contemporary human resources management practices. The department also prepares students by presenting paradigmatic business ethics case studies in intellectual property, privacy, whistleblowing, 'dirty hands,' equal opportunity, advertising, and global and environmental issues.

The department of English offers an entire Generic elective paper under the CBCS scheme entitled Women and Empowerment. It deals in detail about feminist theories and includes works by eminent woman writers. The paper offers an insight in the changing role of women in Society and encapsulates the journey of Women Empowerment across decades. Gender discrimination is also an area that is explored in depth in this paper. The paper deals with the growth and development of women across different genres of writing along with the changes in perception with regard to women from the 16th century to 21st Century. Other papers too subtly touch the topic through the books recommended in suggested readings.

The GIS (Geographic Information System) Workshop by Department of Geography is a intensive workshops that introduces participants to the fundamental concepts of GIS, Map Creation, Maps Visualization, Analysis, Overlay and hands-on techniques of data visualization and analysis using publicly available open source GIS software's.

The Department of geography is committed and actively organized various events inside and outside the college premises to create awareness of environment and sustainability among the students and the citizens of India for healthy environment. A Herbal Garden has been inaugurated with hundred herbal plants and each plant was adopted by the different student members of the Eco Club for its holistic development. Students along with teachers attended a trading program on "Waste Segregation, Natural Farming and Beautification" by Indian Youth Climate Network organization. An orientation program on "Combating Climate Change through Renewable Energy Technologies and Ornamental Plants" organized by Mahatma Gandhi Institute for Combating Climate Change was attended. An Annual Eco Meet at Talkatora Stadium organized by Department of Environment was attended. A Live Show "Youth Express" was telecasted on DD National on 21st September 2013 at 6:00 to 6:30 pm. students along with teachers participated in 7th CMS Vatavaran 2014 organized by Center of Media Studies of Delhi. A team from the institution participated in the debate organized on the theme "Ozone Day" by the Department of Environment. A workshop on "Waste Management through Vermi Compost and Mushroom Cultivation by Scientist Dr. Ashok Kumar from Lala Lajpat Rai University of veterinary and Animal sciences was conducted. A lecture on Waste Management: Waste to Wealth by a speaker from Kalpvriksha NGO was organized in 2015. On this occasion, a competition on plastic waste collection was held with a thought of inculcating habits of waste management and scientific disposal of waste.

The first ever document in the printed form was the Newsletter published in 2011. The newsletter was published with a theme of Geography and our environment. The essential purpose of this newsletter is to inform, engage, inspire and entertain a diverse readership -- including alumni, faculty, staff, students and other friends of College -- by presenting an intimate, timely and honest portrait of the department of geography -- its people, its programs, its history, its challenges, its resources and its mission. In the very next year to continue with the tradition, the department decided to publish magazine. Since then magazine the department is continuously engaged in publishing to achieve its vision of being a truly representative of the efforts on environmentally sustainable. The department is taking initiative in publication of theme based (UNInternational Year) departmental magazine every year to raise awareness and align with core issues emerging at global scenario. In 2012, the theme was Sustainable Energy for allrecognizing the importance of energy for sustainable development. In 2014, the theme was Family Farming to reposition family farming at the center of agricultural, environmental andsocial policies by indentifying gaps and opportunities to promote a shift towards more equaland balanced development. In 2015, the focus of the magazine was on Save Yamuna, Save Delhiinspired by our Honorable Prime Minister- Sh. Narendra Modi's "Ganga Bachao Abhiyan". In 2016, the theme was Healthy Soil for Healthy Life which has been inspired by International Yearof Soils. The significance of soil is for food and nutrition security, agriculture, povertyalleviation, sustainable development, mitigation of climate change and maintaining ecosystemfunctions. The theme of magazine for the year 2017 was on 'Rural Development' and theme for the magazine in year 2018 was related to tourism.

Department of home science has three disciplines. Food technology (FT) discipline had workshop to sensitize students about importance of food label for students. Nutrition and health education (NHE) discipline organizes nutrition month to explore on healthy lifestyle and food choices to maintain environment sustainability. Food technology &Nutrition and Health Education disciplines collectively organized a Food Safety Supervisor certification and training workshop on Basic Manufacturing and Basic Catering, since the Aditi Mahavidyalaya is empanelled as training partner with FoSTac. Human Development and Family Empowerment (HDFE) discipline had organizeda talk on laws for protection of children's interest, organizes breastfeeding week by creating poster and slogan to generate awareness among students. Organized workshop cum seminar entitled 'Recent development in the field of childhood disability. Frequently, conduct lectures on Gender, Legal and Health issues in women's lives aiming to prepare them for their successful transition into the world.

The Social Work Program is comprised of classroom teaching and fieldwork practicum in real life settings. The classroom teaching is directed towards familiarizing the students with principles and skills required for social work intervention and developing students' personality through inculcation of democratic and humanitarian attributes and values. The department organizes various sessions on gender, environment and sustainability issues which help students for their further growth and development. For building up the professional ethics of students the department collaborates for field work training with various government and non-government organization.

Gender forms a critical component of the curriculum of the undergraduate program in Sociology. From papers viz. Sociology of India(Core Course), Gender Sensitisation(SEC), Social Stratification(DSE), students are given a nuanced understanding of Gender, Gendered inequality, Caste and Gender, Women's Movement etc. We send our students in the community, neighbourhood etc to understand the patterns of continuity and change in gender relations. Students are divided into groups and they present group reports in the class. This is all the more pertinent as students have been presenting reports about the patterns of continuity and change in the nearby villages of Bawana.

The Department has also launched an Äkhbaar se Samaj Campaign (as part of Padhega India, MOE, Government of India), wherein students of 4th semester, are to glean through newspapers on the recent Miss Universe pageant, whereby Harnaaz Sandhu of India won the Miss Universe title. They shall present their views and analysis for and against beauty pageants. (Paper- Methods of Sociological Enquiry). The Sem 6 students, (Paper- Social Stratification), are to glean through newspapers, collect material on the recent legislation of age of marriage being increased to 21 for girls. In the class presentations, they are to present facts, views and analysis on the topic. This is also in line with the student centred learning and development of critical thinking as emphasised in the New Education Policy, 2020.

We also use open source videos to kindle student's interest, to highlight gender inequalities and to make teaching learning enjoyable, Eg <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=CPyziygI2No> <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=at-T2PJQgOg> - to highlight objectification of women

2019 20

The college moves steadily and surely on the path to success and advancement through multi dimensional exposure. National and International Events shaped the course of the academic year. Interactive sessions on communication skills and handling interviews were well received by the students. Geo fest was a grand success and theme was SDGC Clean water and sanitation. Students got an exposure to the food and culture of the North East at the event at Vivekananda college. Sensitivity was developed in young minds through visit to SOS village, and through interactive talk by society for blind and deaf. Yoga/Ayurveda was brought to focus through multiple sessions. Holistic development of personality of its students is the main Motto at Aditi.

S. LAUNCH OF OUR VACCINATION DRIVE & VACCINATION GUIDE:

We have also launched our vaccination guide during our extensive interaction with the National Panel on 'Breaking The Cycle' last month. In this interaction, it was observed that many individuals were fully cognizant of all the guidelines that any individual can follow to stay safe. However, they should update their family members, friends, relatives, and inform any close contacts if you need to be tested for COVID-19 and take appropriate steps to ensure your safety. If you are considering going to a local vaccination center, make sure that you are aware of the following: www.covid19.gov.in/

Green Initiatives

In this unprecedented covid 19 situation what we are witnessing is exceptional. On one hand the rate of infection is rising on the other hand whatever the health care infrastructure be, it is always going to be insufficient for the ever-increasing demand for oxygen, medicine, beds, space, and everything that is needed. In this general doom and gloom, we still need hope. Maybe it's time for human infrastructure to work. It's time for people to come together to tackle this pandemic situation and to protect each other. In a human crisis humanity always rises.

Coordinator
Aditi Mahavidyalaya
Bawana, Delhi-110039

In this unprecedented scenario, the objective of this initiative is to make people aware about the importance and significance of plasma treatment. On how better planning and better utilization of existing human infrastructure with 'volunteerism' as it is core in reaching out to one another across the world. With this objective into consideration and practice, VOICES began its very first endeavor in the form of JEETVAN PLASMA KRI - COVID HELPLINE with a force of around thirty two student volunteers and representatives from our college across the nation who were ready to dedicate their time and efforts through 'digital coordination' in matching blood availability with the needs of the patients.
