ANNUAL REPORT (2015-2016)

Delhi - Auchandi Road
Bawana
(University of Delhi)
Delhi - 110039

An Annual Day is a proud and unique opportunity for a principal to share achievements, take stock and to motivate the students and the lecturers to fulfill their aspirations of growth and excellence and to visualize increasingly relevant paradigms of development in higher education. Aditi Mahavidyalaya, by now, is a prominent rural academic institution and is keeping abreast with latest social and technical changes and advancements. Our students now leave these portals with greater confidence especially, in the use of technology. Besides, they are the harbingers of social change and symbolize women empowerment not only in the rural outskirts of Delhi but for the entire country. As long as the women continue to get higher education, the society would be able to stay away from fetters of parochialism, narrow patriarchy, violence arising out of gender-discrimination and falsehood. Our college reiterates its mission of Sarv Satyam Pratishtam and pursues truth and excellence with greater zeal. In continuation of the same spirit, I am today proud to share the commencement of Women Empowerment Series (2015-16)-I, which had begun on International Women Equality Day on August 24, 2015. It was inaugurated by the famous and Padam Shri Award holder classical dancer Ms. Sonal Maan Singh along with Ms. Rekha Sharma, member, National Commission for Women where they spoke about the importance of empowering women and the current international trends, movements and initiatives.

For the academic accomplishments, I am thankful to the committed students and the faculty who have brought the college to its present position of limelight. I am pleased to share with you that Govt. of N.C.T. of Delhi has announced and sanctioned evening classes for our college increasing the capacity of a set of courses from 829 students to 1080. The govt. has announced the capacity expansion plan where the B.A. Prog. seats have been increased from 549 to 580; B.A.(Hons. (Geo.) from 32 to 60; B.A.(Hons.) Hindi Patrakarita avam Jansanchar from 46 to 70; B.A.(Hons.) Social Work from 45 to 60; B.Com.(Hons) from 55 to 130 and in B.El.Ed. from 54 to 60. The new courses for evening classes are B.A.(Hons.)English, B.A.(Hons.) Psychology, B.Com. (Hons.), Biochemistry, B.A.(Hons.) Economics, B.A.(Hons.) Pol Science, B.A.(Hons.) Mass Communication & B.Sc. Physical Science /computer science/chemistry. With the introduction of such courses the college would see a surge in academic and intellectual transactions. Besides these academic advancements the college is also doing well at sports. For instance, Ms. Preeti from B.A. (Hons.) Political Science III year has done exceptionally well and selected in Judo Team for participation in Junior Common Wealth games. My heartiest congratulations to her. The college infrastructure is also improving fast as we received a grant of Rs.55 lakhs from the V.C. fund for the renovation of college hall and setting up of a journalism studio. The then Hon'ble Vice Chancellor Shri Dinesh Singh had visited the college on October 1, 2015 to commence the Vaishali Tomar Memorial scholarship. I am also delighted to share that the college has initiated the process of the installation of two industrial grade Reverse Osmosis water filtration plants. Very soon the college will also have developed an Aditi App at the Playstore available on all the operating systems. Not going into full details here I would also like to share the happy development that this academic year saw a great boost in the students' and faculties' participation in innovation projects and research. Three U.G.C.sponsored Major Projects namely AM 301, AM 302, AM 303 have been undertaken by us this year.

I would like to put on record the contribution of all the Teachers- in-charge, Committee Conveners, members of all Committees and Societies and the non-teaching staff who have contributed to the institution's growth and development. I also wish to acknowledge the administrative and vital support provided by the Bursar, Dr. Anju Singh.

With this I now welcome our well-known chief guest Ms. Swati Maliwal. Ms. Maliwal is an Indian social activist for the past ten years and currently the Chairperson of Delhi Commission for Women. In her short tenure as the Chairperson of the Delhi Commission for Women, she has initiated several programmes for safeguarding the women and girls of Delhi. Ms. Maliwal has also been strongly advocating for anti-trafficking initiatives. She and her team have been instrumental in the rescue of several minor women from brothels and houses and factories where women were forced to work against their will. Prior to this, she was Advisor to the Chief Minister of Delhi, Mr. Arvind Kejriwal and was instrumental in setting up a proper grievance management system within the Delhi Government. She has been a Campaigner with Greenpeace on sustainable agriculture.

Ms. Maliwal has worked extensively on strengthening local self-governance and improving people's participation (especially that of women) in governance. She has also done immense work on the Right to Information Act. Extremely passionate for social causes, she has travelled across the country and has stayed, sometimes for months in various slums and remote villages in India, worked with elected representatives and engaged with many experts, leaders, bureaucrats, activists and the general public. It is my rare privilege to be joining hands with our esteemed Chairperson Prof. Bindu Puri from Department of Philosophy, a researcher, scholar, author and Gandhian in this Annual Day and Prize Distribution ceremony to welcome our other eminent guests Mr. Ved Prakash, M.L.A. Aam Admi Party, Mr. Shiv Kumar, Director, D.H.E. and Mr. Navlender, O.S.D. to the Deputy Chief Minister, Govt. of N.C.T. of Delhi who have so graciously consented to grace this occasion.

INFRASTRUCTURAL IMPROVEMENTS

Owing to the growing strength of students, a new block of two storeys was constructed inside the college which gave us six new rooms, a big hall for meetings and conferences and a new reading room and a new library room. Out of the new rooms, one was turned into a medical room with basic medicines, a bed and first-aid facilities and inaugurated on October 1, 2015 by the honourable Vice Chancellor, University of Delhi. This year also saw a major renovation of the college hall, which received a completely new false ceiling, a new stage floor and new curtains.

PRINCIPAL'S ACHIEVEMENTS

Dr. Mamta Sharma, the college principal leads the college by example as she wrote at least nine research papers out of which three have already been published and six accepted and being processed for publications – all in international journals. The areas and concerns researched grow out of the dynamics of women and climate, interaction of gender and science and issues of empowerment, and confluence of coping, disasters and technology. She is also a part of a Major Research Project AM-302 sponsored by U.G.C.

Current Research Project : “Psychological, Commercial and Legal Fight of Aged Consumers for Consumer Rights: A Self-Help Group Technique (AM-302)”

In the fourth phase of the study, the effectiveness of the interventional programme in improving the knowledge, attitude and understanding regarding NFL among early adolescents shall be assessed. We wish the team all the best in improving the knowledge relating to nutrition facts on food labels among the consumers.

- The innovation project AM303 titled as Psychological, Commercial, and Legal Fight of Aged Consumers : A Self-Help Group Technique has been taken up in the college whose Principal Investigators are Dr. Mamta Sharma (Principal Aditi Mahavidyalaya), Dr Ritu Sharma (Assistant Professor, Department of Psychology), Dr. Divya Sharma (Assistant Professor, Department of Commerce), Dr Sunita Dahiya (Assistant Professor, Department of Commerce) and students named Himani, Chetna, Debakshi, Nidhi Mishra, Chandrika, Pooja, Diksha, Sheetal, Shivangi, Nidhi Dabas. This project is a medium to bring about awareness of the wrong consumer practices such as the generation of black money on a day to day basis. We organised workshops for skill and knowledge development of students and older people at various places. The workshops were conducted by international and national experts in the psychological, commercial and legal aspects of consumer behaviour. Prof Sue. C. Jacobs (Professor, Oklahoma States University, U.S.A.) conducted the workshop on psychological aspects of consumer behaviour. Advocate Ankita Chaudhary (Lawyer, Supreme Court of India) and Advocate Ashoka Jain (High Court) conducted the workshop for legal aspects of consumers behaviour and talked about the procedures of filing complaints in consumer forum, consumer rights and responsibility of consumers. Dr. Rekha Dayal (Associate Professor, Department of Commerce, Jesus and Mary college) and Dr. Abha Mathur (Department of Commerce, Satyawati College) shared some skills and knowledge of the commercial aspects affecting consumer behaviour. These workshops served as intermediaries to bridge the gap between the knowledge and skills among the young and older participants. Besides, many competitions such as t-shirt painting, collage-making, debate, poster-making have been organised at inter-college level in which students participated with great enthusiasm. Relevant data has been gathered for development of plans and formulation of policies.
