The content in the event is as follows:

To raise awareness about existence and cause of corruption.

The event started with reciting the “SARASWATI MANTRA”.

Then Dr. Mamta Sharma (Principal of Aditi Mahavidyalaya) presented the keynote address & integrity pledge.

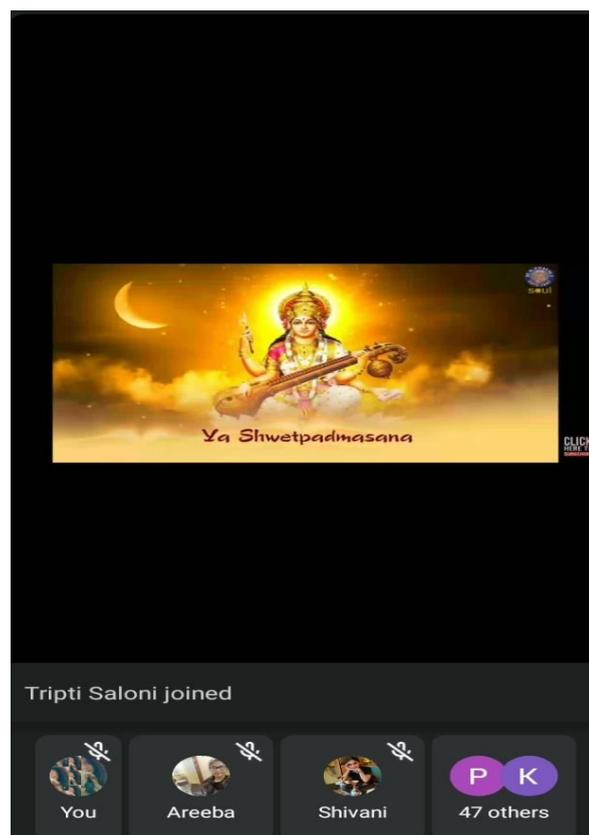

Integrity Pledge for Citizens

I believe that corruption has been one of the major obstacles to economic, political and social progress of our country. I believe that all stakeholders such as the Government, citizens and private sector need to work together to eradicate corruption. I realise that every citizen should be vigilant and commit to highest standards of honesty and integrity at all times and support the fight against corruption. I, therefore, pledge:

- ❖ To follow probity and rule of law in all walks of life;
- ❖ To neither take nor offer bribe;
- ❖ To perform all tasks in an honest and transparent manner;
- ❖ To act in public interest;
- ❖ To lead by example exhibiting integrity in personal behaviour;
- ❖ To report any incident of corruption to the appropriate agency.

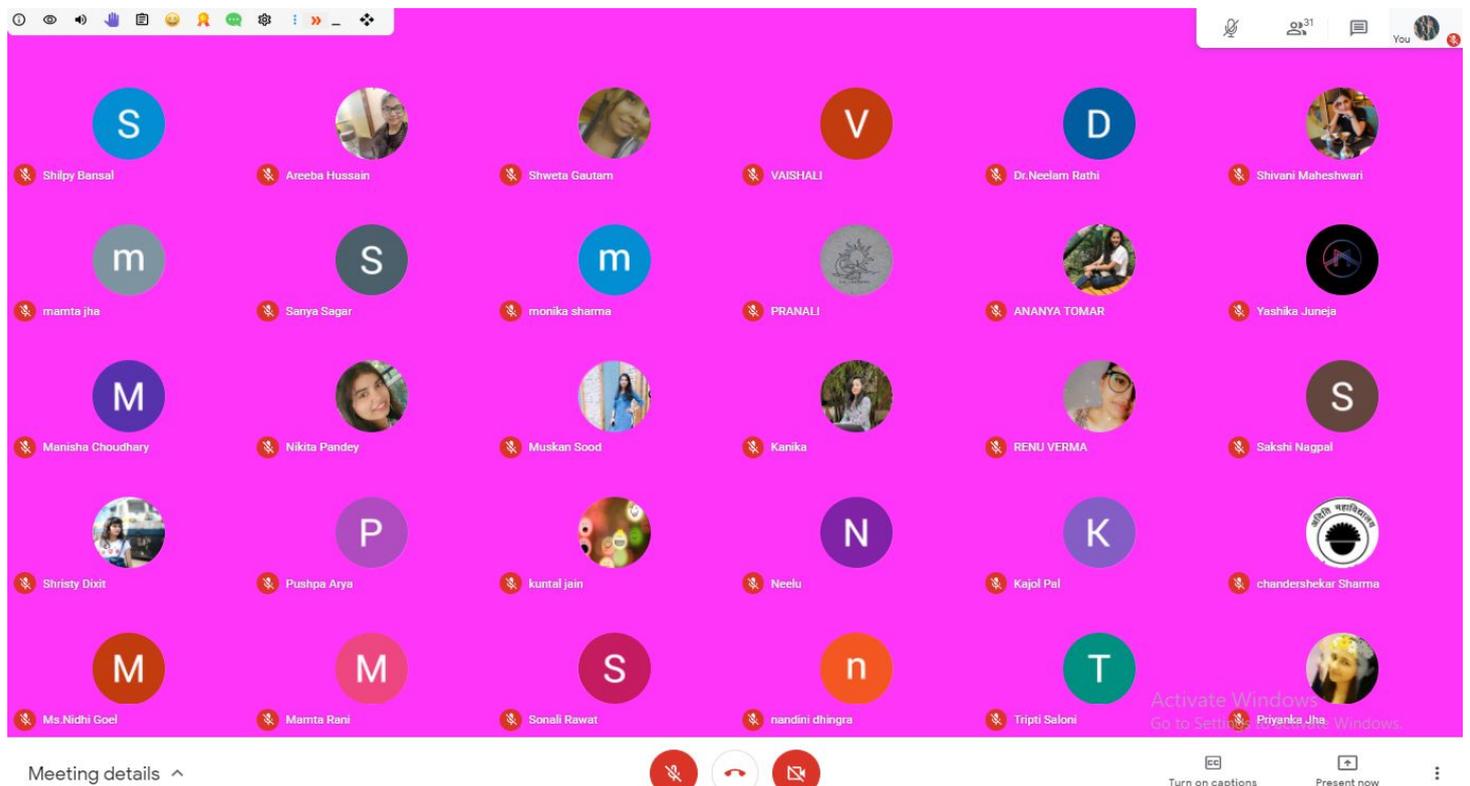

Dr. Neelam Rathi (Convener, IQUAC, Aditi Mahavidyalaya) talked on “CORRUPTION FREE INDIA ”. She covered the following pointers in her talk: -

- What Is Vigilance Awareness Week?
- Why is Vigilance Awareness Week celebrated?
- How can we be vigilant in our life?
- Why is it important for the Indian youth to be vigilant?
- What type of act is said to be a bribe?
- Laws related to bribery

In the session there was a slot for the students where they can share their experiences, speeches, poems, posters related to the event theme.

Also few comments about the session were collected from the professor attendees about the session. The details is as follows:
