

ADITI MAHAVIDYALAYA ORGANISED 'Y20 MODEL UNITED NATIONS (MUN)' ON 'CLIMATE CHANGE AND DISASTER RISK REDUCTION- MAKING SUSTAINABILITY A WAY OF LIFE'

August 22, 2023 - New Delhi, India - Aditi Mahavidyalaya, UNIVERSITY OF DELHI, successfully organised the 'Y20 Model United Nations (MUN)' on the pivotal theme of "Climate Change and Disaster Risk Reduction- Making Sustainability a way of Life". The event took place on August 22, 2023, and brought together a diverse group of young leaders, scholars, and professionals to engage in meaningful discussions on global issues. The Y20 MUN, meticulously organized by the college garnered enthusiastic participation from students across various disciplines. The conference provided a unique platform for students to simulate real-world diplomatic negotiations, fostering a deeper understanding of the complexities surrounding climate change and sustainable development management. The event was graced by the esteemed presence of Principal Professor Mamta Sharma, who delivered an insightful inaugural address. Professor Mamta Sharma emphasized the pressing need for collective action to combat climate change and the role of youth in driving sustainable development strategies. Her visionary speech set the tone for the MUN, inspiring participants to actively engage in constructive debates and propose innovative solutions.

The Y20 MUN witnessed lively discussions and intense deliberations among twenty delegates representing different countries. Delegates engaged in sessions covering a wide range of topics, including climate policy frameworks, renewable energy promotion, adaptation strategies, and international collaboration to address environmental challenges. The conference served as a fertile ground for fostering intellectual growth and leadership skills among the participants. Delegates honed their public speaking, negotiation, and diplomacy skills, gaining valuable insights into the intricate dynamics of international relations and environmental governance. The Y20 MUN not only provided students with a unique platform to exchange ideas but also inspired them to consider their roles as responsible global citizens. The discussions were thought-provoking, and the resolutions proposed showcased the participants' commitment to addressing climate change. The collaborative efforts of all involved, including the organizing team, faculty mentors, and passionate participants, ensured the success of the Y20 MUN at Aditi Mahavidyalaya. The event concluded with a sense of optimism, with delegates acknowledging their responsibility to contribute to sustainable development initiatives and foster positive change in their communities.
