EXAMINATION COMMITTEE

Examination committee (2021-22) had the unique experience of conducting examinations in both online and offline mode. Examinations took place four times during its tenure:

- III and V semester examinations in Nov-Dec 2021 in online mode
- I semester examinations in March 2022 in online mode
- IV and VI semester examinations in May-June 2022 in offline mode
- II semester examinations in Aug. 2022 in offline mode

Conducting examination in online mode was challenging because students had to be taught how to give online examinations. With this purpose, the committee organized orientation programmes for the students so as to make them aware about how to upload their papers on the University portal and also about the rules and regulations notified by the University. Subject teachers ensured that students were able to upload their answers properly and on time.

GREEN AUDIT COMMITTEE

The AMV's Green Audit Committee has actively engaged in various endeavours to foster sustainability and establish an environmentally conscious campus. Here is a summarized overview of green audit committee tasks and achievements: following are the main areas where green audit committee work mainly

1. Herb Garden: The committee regularly organized plantation drives to enrich the campus greenery, aiming to create a healthier and sustainable environment by increasing the number of trees and plants. Each plant was labelled with its species and significance. Furthermore, established a small herb garden housing medicinal plants.
2. Environmental Awareness Survey: To gauge the level of environmental consciousness among the college community, the committee conducted a comprehensive survey focusing on energy, water, and waste management. The survey helped identify areas for improvement and raise awareness about sustainable practices among students, faculty, and staff.
3. Solar Panel Implementation: The college installed solar panels on campus, reducing reliance on conventional energy sources and promoting clean and sustainable energy usage.
4. Water Harvesting: To conserve water, the committee implemented water harvesting practices by installing broad pipes in the ground to collect rainwater. Utilizing the high groundwater level in the Bawana area, this initiative helped conserve water resources and replenish the groundwater table.

LIBRARY COMMITTEE

The biggest challenge after covid was to increase the number of visitors to the library and to promote the reading skills of the students. After much discussion and deliberation, the library committee members decided to begin research. The library has initiated a research project "Reading (e)-choices of library users in the covid 19 lockdown and post-covid: A gender impact assessment" as part of the undergraduate research program (2022) developed by the college research cell. The aim is to find gaps in reading habits and choices due to the pandemic and how the library can support readers to develop their skills.

During the last year, the library has carried out a number of initiatives and activities in this regard. The library has created reading circles where students discuss their reading with other interested readers. It contains all kinds of readings. The aim is to help them create a forum for reading, thinking and discussion.

"One Nation Reading Together" is a campaign by Aditi that promotes the concept of "community reading" to foster a sense of "Oneness". On the occasion of National Librarian's Day and Azadi ka AmritMahotsav, this campaign was done with the help of the animated book "Unsung Heroines of the Freedom Struggle" published by Amar Chitra Katha by organizing a collective online reading on August 12, 2022.

The young Book enthusiasts of Aditi Mahavidyalaya along with the library committee members visited the World Book Fair on March 3, 2023. It is a fair in the true sense ...not only the display of publication by different countries in different languages but also a celebration of diversities of ideas and thoughts. One can find people of all ages, genders and colours delved into the ocean of books.

Celebration of a week-long Pustakalya Mahotsav in 2021-22 during the lockdown was a big achievement in terms of organizing academic and research-oriented activities for teachers and students. In continuation the library fest of the year 2022-23 came out with two events.

College library redefines this by spreading its wings beyond its four walls, creating open reading spaces. The first edition of Outdoor libraries alongwith a collection of old Indian/Hindi Classics has been established in the premises. It is incredible to watch a generation that is younger than 5 decades younger flipping through the pages and enjoying the nostalgia of times gone by. Efforts are being made to revive recreational reading activities in leisure times. A recycled book shelf is used for this purpose.

The college library organized the Graduate Research Seminar GRADS2023 at the library fest on April 26, 2023. 30 research papers including papers from other universities, were received from different colleges and departments at Delhi University, which was a resounding response. Graduate and postgraduate students read papers on a range of topics, including tourism, women and violence, women and personal hygiene, acceptance of third gender, classroom teaching and learning, curriculum and texts, adolescent issues, mental health, entrepreneurial mindsets, and privileges etc.

The data gathered from the fields was presented in the majority of the papers. Over 100 attendees, 39 presenters (including group paper presentations), and 7 faculty mentors were present at the seminar. In order to facilitate a dialogue, each group had a teacher mentor/s.

This seminar was an opportunity for graduate students to present their research and use the space for critical and reflective discussion of their research with other researchers and mentors.

Alumna Ms. Rakhi was the guest of the event. She is currently working on her master's dissertation on resilience and compassion and got a fellowship to work with Red Door (a mental health organisation), University of Cambridge.

MAGAZINE COMMITTEE- *AditiLipi

The faculty and student representatives constitute the magazine and the newsletter committee. The Committee meets periodically to discuss and select articles for publication. Where necessary it also commissions articles from faculty and non-teaching staff of the college. The name AditiLipi is inspired by the essence of the word Lipi. It is the record, in writing, of the orality of a set of people. In the beginning people used figures of objects to express their ideas. They were called 'pictorial writings' and are found, even now, in caves around the world, where the aborigines lived. Gradually, letters took the place of pictures to convey the thoughts, ideas and feelings of all involved. Published annually, this is a third issue of AditiLipi. Earlier, the college magazine was published under the name of Navya. The magazine is published with the objective to provide a platform for students to express themselves through various forms of writing like research articles, comments on current topics, literary/ creative writing and general knowledge extracts. It encourages freedom of expression and provides a medium for exchange of thoughts and information.

The Equal Opportunity Cell, Aditi Mahavidyalaya, has achieved newer heights this year, bringing the student community closer to equity. A significant focus of the cell was on Inclusivity, Accessibility and Diversity, especially for women students and Persons with Disabilities.

In October 2022, an Accessibility Audit was conducted on the college premises with the help of the Association for Disabled People. The objective of the campaign was to create mass awareness for accessibility, which will enable persons with disabilities to live independently and participate fully in all aspects of life. The buildings being audited shall be judged for the accessibility based on standards, and the identified barriers will be looked into to enhance accessibility and make the college barrier-free.

The cell undertook the initiative to create comfortable and accessible spaces in the library for persons with disabilities. The Library Corners which were made helped students access a learning environment and various resources that our institution has to offer.

The Librarian was also guided about open-source software and various e-portals, which makes resources accessible for persons with disability. Such crucial resources were made accessible to the students and staff.

This year rigorous efforts were made to make the college accessible in totality for persons with disabilities. The Equal Opportunity Cell worked closely with various donor agencies and philanthropists to ensure that the vision of inclusivity, accessibility and diversity is realised.
