Aditi Mahavidyalaya, University of Delhi, successfully conducted an impactful session on “Safe Spaces: Combating Sexual Harassment at Workplace through Awareness & Action”, organized by the Committee Against Sexual Harassment. The session aimed at fostering a safer and more informed environment for students and faculty members by discussing key aspects of workplace harassment prevention and legal frameworks.

The session was facilitated by Prof. Archana Kaushik from the Department of Social Work, University of Delhi, who provided critical insights into the importance of gender sensitization, legal provisions against harassment, and the significance of fostering safe workplaces. The session was attended by a large number of students and faculty members, demonstrating the keen interest and commitment of the college community towards ensuring safety and awareness.

Key Takeaways for Students:

- Increased awareness of legal rights and redressal mechanisms for sexual harassment.
- Empowerment to recognize and report inappropriate behavior in professional spaces.
- Enhanced understanding of the importance of safe and inclusive work environments.
- Encouragement to actively contribute towards creating a harassment-free society.

The event was successfully coordinated by Prof. Beena Antony Reji (Convenor) and Prof. Pooja Khanna (Co-convenor), with valuable support from faculty members Prof. Asha, Dr. Aneesh TV, Dr. Gyanvati, and Ms. Manisha Pal. The presence and guidance of Prof. Mamta Sharma, Principal, further strengthened the session’s impact.

This session marked a crucial step in the college’s ongoing efforts to create a safe and empowering educational and professional atmosphere. The Committee Against Sexual Harassment remains committed to organizing more such awareness initiatives in the future to continue fostering an environment of respect and dignity for all.
