ADITI MAHAVIDYALAYA 2024-2025

The NCC wing of the college exemplifies unparalleled dedication towards the welfare and honor of both the institution and the nation. Established in 1998, the NCC unit of AMV stands as a beacon of commitment, attached to the esteemed 2 Delhi Girls Battalion within Group B.

AMV NCC is the epitome of student engagement, fostering the development of character, comradeship, discipline, leadership, secular outlook, and the spirit of adventure among its members. Through its ethos of selfless service, the unit has not only enriched the lives of its cadets but has also been instrumental in guiding them towards illustrious careers in the Indian Defence Services and various other sectors.

Throughout the year, NCC cadets engage in a multitude of activities aimed at holistic development and community service. These include participation in CATC camp, ATC camp, as well as involvement in tree plantation etc. Under the capable leadership of NCC CARETAKER DR. RASHMI GUPTA, the college's NCC unit thrives, instilling in its cadets not only military discipline but also a sense of responsibility towards society and the nation at large.
