- 1. Report on the Model United Nations (MUN) on “Lifestyle for Environment” held on 04.10.2024: The Extensive Lecture Series Committee, Aditi Mahavidyalaya in collaboration with Yuvamanthan successfully organized ‘Model United Nations’ (MUN) on the topic “Lifestyle for Environment” on 4 October, 2024. The event was coordinated under the guidance of the convenor, Prof. Nitu Rana, and committee members, Dr. Sunita Dahiya and Dr. Lovely, in the esteemed presence of Prof. Mamta Sharma, Principal, Aditi Mahavidyalaya. The MUN aimed to engage students in an insightful discussion on the importance of adopting sustainable lifestyles to address pressing environmental challenges. The participants, representing various countries, deliberated on innovative strategies and policies that could be implemented globally to promote environmental sustainability. The students took on the roles of delegates from countries worldwide, each bringing unique perspectives on how their respective nations were addressing environmental sustainability. The Model United Nations(MUN) was a significant success, offering students a platform to understand global environmental challenges and their responsibility as global citizens. The event concluded with a reaffirmation of the need for collective efforts in addressing sustainability issues and a commitment from all participants to continue advocating for environmental sustainability in their daily lives. The Principal Prof. Mamta Sharma encouraged students to take forward the message of sustainable living, ensuring that they contribute positively to environmental conservation. The event was a testament to the college’s commitment to raising awareness about critical global issues, fostering leadership, and promoting sustainable lifestyles among its students.

Around 41 students participated in the event as delegates and audience.

2. Report of “Advanced Excel Training Session” held on 22.02.25: The Extensive Lecture Series Committee and Department of Commerce, Aditi Mahavidyalaya, University of Delhi, organized an expert online session on "Advanced Excel" on 22nd February 2025, in collaboration with NIIT Foundation. The session, led by Mr. Pawan Mahawar, started at 3:00 pm at the Google Meet. The event was inaugurated by principal, Prof. Mamta Sharma who introduced the importance of Excel. The Excel workshop conducted by the NIIT Foundation was a highly successful initiative that provided participants with essential skills to effectively use Microsoft Excel. By offering a mix of theoretical insights and practical applications, the workshop equipped attendees with foundational knowledge of data entry, analysis, and visualization. Participants not only gained confidence in using Excel for everyday tasks but also learned key features like pivot tables, formulas, and data formatting, which will significantly enhance their productivity. The hands-on approach, combined with interactive learning, fostered an engaging environment that allowed participants to apply what they learned immediately. Overall, the workshop achieved its goal of empowering individuals with the digital skills necessary to excel in both personal and professional settings. Based on the positive feedback and the demonstrated interest, future workshops focusing on advanced Excel techniques will further support participants in their journey towards mastering this vital tool. The event concluded with a vote of thanks from the event coordinator, who expressed gratitude to Mr. Mahawar and appreciated the students’ enthusiastic participation. The session was informative and interactive, leaving attendees with a deeper understanding of AI's role in Excel.

Around 70 students participated in the event.

- Report of Workshop on “Wealth Creation Through Equity” held on 09.04.25:The Extensive Lecture Series Committee and Department of Commerce, Aditi Mahavidyalaya in collaboration with ‘Committee for Promotion of Financial Literacy’, University of Delhi successfully organized a thought-provoking and informative workshop on “Wealth Creation Through Equity” on 09th April 2025. The event was graced by the esteemed Prof. R. P. Tulsian, a renowned academician in the field of finance and equity, currently serving as Chairman of Committee for Promotion of Financial Literacy, University of Delhi. This was not only to celebrate the spirit of nation-building but also reflecting on the future, we aspire to shape — a future defined by progress, inclusivity, innovation, and shared prosperity. Viksit Bharat — or Developed

India — is not merely a slogan; it is a powerful call to action. The idea of wealth creation through equity is central to this vision. It urges us to build systems where access to opportunities, resources, and capital is not limited to a few, but distributed fairly. It inspires us to create an India where innovation is supported, entrepreneurship is encouraged, and prosperity is shared. Educators and learners have a critical role to play in this mission. The foundation of a Viksit Bharat lies in our classrooms, our research, and our commitment to fostering the values of responsibility, equity, and nation-first thinking.

Around 154 students participated in the event.
